The San Francisco Municipal Transportation Agency (SFMTA) recommends adding the following text as a new bullet under the Enabling Policies and Funding element. The SFMTA feels that this addition is need to clarify the goal of smart-growth and efficient planning that is currently not emphasized in the document:

- Federal transportation funding programs should prioritize and incentivize dense, mixed-use, walkable development in infill locations served by existing public transit networks.

If you have any questions or need additional information, please give me a call or contact Peter Albert, Manager of SFMTA Urban Planning Initiatives, at 415.701.4328.
